The New Story of Aging: Six Cs for Vital Living

What can more than 400 women over 70 teach us about living a fulfilling life? Join Catherine and Gail—Women Over 70—Aging Reimagined®—for stories, conversation, and podcast clips exploring six qualities that can enrich our lives across the years. Together, we'll challenge outdated myths about aging and consider new possibilities for the years ahead.

Catherine Marienau, Ph.D., and Gail Zelitzky, M.A., entrepreneurs in their respective fields of adult higher education and business, are the creators of the podcast Women Over 70—Aging Reimagined®, which celebrates the contributions of women ages 70 to 110. Many of these contributions are celebrated in their new book: Women Over 70: Reimagining Aging, Place, and Possibilities. They also lead the monthly Aging Reimagined Circle online programs for engaging conversation about topics that matter to older women. Visit their award-winning podcast www.womenover70.com to learn more.
